Living Lent | Day 24

Creating Home... Sharing Your Home

"Paul lived for two years in his rented house. He welcomed everyone who came to visit... His door was always open."

Acts 28: 30-31 MSG

Encouragement for the Lenten Journey:

So, what do we know about Lent,
Jesus' last days of life well spent,
Days fasting, that we, too, can do
All who love him, including you.

Think of something you really love,
Then give it up for Christ above.
For forty days, put it aside
And think of Jesus, how He died.

He gave His life, Oh, what a loss,
Nailed for us to a rugged cross.
He loved us then and still does now,
So, thank Him daily in your prayer

Paul, a sinner, called by our Lord,
To spread His message to the horde.
He shared his home with all who came
And welcomed them in Jesus' name.

So, in these forty days of Lent
Let's try to make our time well spent,
By fasting, sharing, caring love
In memory of our Lord above.

We'll read our Bibles every day
And think of others when we pray.
Let's journey through these forty days
And offer up to God our praise.

Challenge to Prayer and the Exercise of the Privilege of Generosity

As you pray and sacrifice through fasting throughout this Lenten Journey, will you take this opportunity to pay forward in generosity a gift of at least $1 per day throughout the 40 days for the Children of Morningstar? It is a privilege and a blessing to give as we all look forward to Easter and the Resurrection.

Angie Burns, St. Simons Island, Georgia, is a member of the Christ Church of St. Simons Island, and an obvious writer of poetry that is inspiring to all. She sent along this special message to the Children of Morningstar as well as all of us: To my young friends at Morningstar; I was so happy to be asked to write a page for your JOURNEY THROUGH LENT. I love the dark days of Lent because I know that when Jesus gave His life for our sins on Easter morning, the most wonderful day of the Christian year, He rose from the dead and lives forever in our hearts.
