

Station Six of the Cross | March 12

Veronica Wipes Face of Jesus

Then those who are righteous will reply to him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you a drink? When did we see you as a stranger and welcome you, or naked and give you clothes to wear? When did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?'

"Then the king will reply to them, 'I assure you that when you have done it for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you have done it for me.'

Matthew 25: 37-40

Encouragement for the Lenten Journey:

God wants to reveal himself to us every day in our life. It begins with simply giving God permission: permission to reveal himself, permission to transform us into who we were created to be. God wants to imprint his face on us so that our life will portray him, just as Veronica's veil portrays Jesus. How has God been challenging you to be bold for him?

Prayer

Almighty and ever-loving God, we feel your love and understanding in the consolation and support we receive from one another. Give us the courage and dedication to sacrifice and suffer with those who are in need. Help me to see the one small thing I can do for you, and help me to do it before the moment passes.

Amen

It takes a lot of everything to create home and healing for the

foster children, our neighbors, served at Morningstar Children's Home.

We invite you to join others in giving $1 per day during Lent to help support the needs of the children.
