

Station Eight of the Cross | March 19

Jesus Encounters the Women

A huge crowd of people followed Jesus, including women, who were mourning and wailing for him. Jesus turned to the women and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, don't cry for me. Rather, cry for yourselves and your children."

Luke 23: 27-28

Encouragement for the Lenten Journey:

As we look to Christ making his way towards his Crucifixion, we see that in his most difficult suffering, he still tries to console and offer comfort to others. He speaks to mothers, who by definition will put their children before their own. Christ came to serve the world. He humbled Himself to the point of death. He puts our very lives before his own. His compassion is endless. And even in his worst suffering, he never stops giving himself.

Prayer

Merciful Lord, help me to care more about others than myself. To put their needs before mine. Help me to remember that others have problems too. Help me to respond to them, even when I'm busy or preoccupied with my own problems.

Amen
