

Station Nine of the Cross | March 25

Jesus Falls for the Third Time

Lord, please save us! Lord, please let us succeed! The one who enters in the Lord's name is blessed; we bless all of you from the Lord's house. The Lord is God! He has shined a light on us! So lead the festival offering with ropes all the way to the horns of the altar. You are my God—I will give thanks to you! You are my God—I will lift you up high!

Psalm 118: 25-28

Encouragement for the Lenten Journey:

When were you the weakest, the point of giving up, the end of your rope? When did you feel as though you had nothing left? We cross over the halfway point on this journey to the cross and know this is not the end for Jesus. Even though we may be tired, worn out, or exhausted, Jesus can barely walk now. It takes all of his strength to hold up the heavy cross. His feet begin to drag and then his knees give out, and he falls to the ground again. Some people in the crowd wonder if he can stand up once more. Jesus does not complain or give in to despair when the road gets hard. Once more he stands up to finish his journey.

Prayer

Lord, please help me to follow your example and not give up because I know you will always be there to help me carry my cross. Grant me the humility and perseverance to continue falling and rising until I am safely home with you.

Amen
